Dear Mr Wee,

LangScape: Exploring ways of teaching language and literature held from 27th April 06 to 28th April 06

On behalf of the English Language and Literature Academic Group, as well as the organizing committee, we would like to express my deep appreciation for your contribution to our conference, Langscape: Exploring Ways of Teaching Language and Literature, and the thoughtfulness and effort you put into preparing your presentation. The feedback we have so far obtained from our participants, especially the teachers, has been overwhelmingly positive; many of them commented on the immediate relevance to their teaching lives of the issues and concepts which were highlighted in the various presentations, and on the important insights they were able to gain into how pedagogical practices in their curriculum subject can be reconceptualised and re-made in their classrooms.

We also hope that the conference provided you with opportunities to get to know, and exchange ideas with, other researchers and teacher-researchers, from Singapore, the region and overseas.

With best wishes,

Dr Lubna Alsagoff
Associate Professor and Head
English Language and Literature AG

Dr Anneliese Kramer-Dahl
Associate Professor and Deputy Head
Chair, Conference Organizing Committee
